

 SAYT SUPERIOR ARTS YOUTH THEATER

Parent/Guardian and Volunteer
Handbook

Dear Parent or Volunteer,

On behalf of the Board of Directors, staff, and youth members, we want to thank you for your interest and involvement with Superior Arts Youth Theater. Welcome!

Achieving the goal of providing central Upper Peninsula youth with dynamic theater opportunities is a community-wide effort; parent and community volunteers play a critical role in this endeavor. SAYT's volunteer program serves the youth participants in a variety of ways, from building props and costumes to making sure the kids are safe and hydrated. The success of the theater depends on you!

Thank you in advance for helping us to increase the quality of the artistic opportunities available to our youth. We look forward to working closely with you as we unite to serve our children.

Sincerely,
Superior Arts Youth Theater

Purpose of Handbook and How to Use It

Welcome to Superior Arts Youth Theater! In this document we will share with you a little about the history, philosophy, policies, and expectations of our theater.

This handbook has been organized by topic in order to help you find information easily. We ask that you read this resource carefully, and refer to it whenever questions arise. We also encourage you to talk with our staff if you have additional questions about SAYT or the contents of this document.

Thank you for supporting arts opportunities for local youth. We hope that you find working with SAYT a positive and rewarding experience.

Organization Description and History

Superior Arts Youth Theater (SAYT) is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt organization located in Marquette, MI serving the central Upper Peninsula of Michigan. Formerly known as the Marquette Arts and Culture Center Youth Theatre (2001-2011) and Lake Superior Youth Theatre (2011-2015), we are now an independent theater company. SAYT camps and productions are open to youth ages 3-18. We produce a series of performances each year ranging from variety shows and community event performances to full productions at the historic Kaufman Auditorium, Northern Michigan University's Forest Roberts Theater, and the Lake Superior Theater Boathouse.

You can find a detailed timeline of our organization and production history on our website: <http://saytheater.org/history/>

Mission

SAYT seeks to empower young people ages 3-18 through educational, performance, and technical theater opportunities. These opportunities encourage growth through acting, music, dance and other arts disciplines while entertaining audiences with high-quality productions.

Vision

The strength of our community is measured, in part, by its ability to meet the needs of its young people. We believe that every child in the Upper Peninsula deserves access to education that nurtures theatrical talents and their enthusiasm for the arts. We envision a future where a comprehensive range of theatre arts made for and by children is a vital component in every community. We celebrate the creativity of the youth, volunteers, and staff that bring each production to life and we seek to mentor, support, and empower their voices.

Inclusion

SAYT is working to make sure we are a welcoming space for peoples of all ability, ethnicity, economic status, sexual orientation, and gender identity. Our program includes need-based financial aid, ADA compliant rehearsal and performance spaces, all gender restrooms, and a faculty happy to work with families to meet participants' individual physical, learning, and social needs. If there are ways we can be more welcoming to your family, please let us know at saytheater.directors@gmail.com.

Core Values

- Inspire creativity
- Improve social, behavioral, and communication skills
- Foster community and youth leadership
- Promote quality, local arts opportunities
- Nurture theatrical skills and interest in the arts
- Discipline through artistic practice

Rehearsal and Performance Expectations

Putting together a musical or play should be fun and safe for everyone involved. Here are a few basic guidelines for youth participants that we follow during rehearsals and performances.

- Participants must sign in at the beginning of rehearsal.
- Participants who are on the sign out list must sign out at the end of each rehearsal.
- Always check the rehearsal schedule.
- Always check your email.
- Participants should always bring their script and a pencil for writing blocking or acting notes.
- Please arrive ten minutes early so every rehearsal can start and end on time.
- For blocking and choreography rehearsals, participants should dress in layers and wear shoes that allow them to move easily.
- Please practice lines/music/choreography at home. Only part of the work can be done in rehearsal. Each cast member is responsible for learning their role in the show.

SAYT Company Contract

At the start of each SAYT program, parents and youth are required to abide by and agree to respect the SAYT Company Contract. The language of the contract is as follows:

I agree to be a member of the Superior Arts Youth Theater Company and will:

1. Come to all rehearsals prepared and on time.
2. Always be respectful to the artistic staff, volunteers, any my fellow company members.
3. Ask the directors if I have a question.
4. Make sure that the directors and Stage Manager are aware of my conflicts. I will not change my conflicts unless I have prior consent from my director to miss rehearsal.
5. Not miss any assigned rehearsals.
6. Learn my part and perform to the best of my abilities.
7. Pitch in when help is needed.
8. Abide by the SAYT Code of Ethics.
9. Put my cell phone or other electronic devices away when I'm at a rehearsal or performance and to abide by all SAYT electronic policies.
10. Represent SAYT in public and on social media in an appropriate and family-friendly manner.
11. Obtain permission from the Director before recording video in rehearsals or performances. I will not post anything online via Instagram, Facebook, Snapchat, email, text messaging, or any other electronic transmission without permission.
12. Voice any issues or complaints to the directors, artistic staff, or board members before or after rehearsals (not during unless it is an emergency).

Code of Ethics

Part of the great tradition of Theatre is a code of ethics which applies to all who work on the stage. SAYT's Code of Ethics reflects principles which govern our work, dedication to the art and craft of Theatre, respect for cast, crew, artistic staff, and volunteers, and the awareness that SAYT serves as the primary regional/community youth theater in Marquette County. This code outlines a self-discipline which increases personal self-esteem and encourages collaboration toward a common purpose.

All those who participate in SAYT activities are required to adhere to this Code of Ethics. Disciplinary action may include removal from the production and/or not being part of future productions. (See “Consequences for Contract Violation” pg. 8-9)

I agree to:

1. Attend every assigned rehearsal and performance unless excused by my supervisor (Director, Stage Manager, Technical Director).
2. Be on time for every assigned rehearsal and performance unless excused by my supervisor.
3. Remain present in the theatre building until I have been dismissed from rehearsal or work assignment.
4. Work to the best of my ability at all times, regardless of how small my responsibilities or large my outside concerns are.
5. Meet each onstage or offstage task/entrance/cue.
6. Never come to a rehearsal or performance under the influence of any illegal substances.
7. Try, to the best of my ability, to translate the notes of the director, the stage manager, the technical director, or the designers into my production responsibilities, understanding that their advice comes from their view of the production as a whole. I understand that my role is a portion thereof, that I am a part of a collaborative process.
8. Change no phase of my work without proper authorization.
9. Be patient and avoid outbursts.
10. Accept artistic responsibility and never blame other members of the production for my own mistakes or lack of preparation.
11. Engage in no criticism of another colleague's work either in person or via social media.
12. Accept both public praise and constructive criticism graciously.
13. Respect and protect the stage set, properties, costumes, equipment and rehearsal/performance spaces.
14. Maintain my enthusiasm for the theatre, regardless of production disappointment or failure for they are the lessons by which I learn.
- 15. Respect all company members, including the personnel in the box office, various shops, designers, technicians, actors on stage, understudies, directors, and stage managerial staff. From first to last, theater is a collaborative art.

Consequences for Contract Violation

Discipline, combined with due process, shall be administered in a consistent, fair, and reasonable manner to ensure that youth participants conduct themselves in a socially acceptable manner. Although the rules may not address themselves to all situations participants may face, it is expected that everyone will exercise common sense concerning their conduct during rehearsals and performances. Extreme cases of a rule violation may warrant consequences greater than the minimums listed in the Consequences for Contract Violation. Participants with multiple offenses in separate categories are subject to consequences greater than listed as well.

Inappropriate Snacks

1. Item taken away for length of rehearsal/text parent

1. Verbal warning/separate youth
2. Call parent/send home
3. Review by Ethics Committee

Level 3 Disrespectful Behavior - Cumulative

(examples: excessive bullying, inappropriate posting about or representing the youth theater on social media, physical violence or endangering the safety of others, use or possession of illegal substances, destruction of property, theft)

1. Removal from production

Appeals Process for Contract Violation

The following procedure will apply for appeals of violations of the SAYT Company Contract:

1. An informal discussion will be held between the parties involved, the Director, and Executive Director.
2. A written appeal to the Executive Director within five days of the meeting.
3. The Executive Director will submit a written recommendation to the Ethics Committee and production staff within 48 hours of receiving the appeal.
4. The Ethics Committee and staff members, upon request, may hear the case and will render a final judgment.

COVID-19 Rehearsal Procedures

SAYT will:

- Err on the side of caution: If someone says they do not feel well, they will be sent home.
- Hold virtual rehearsals whenever possible.
- Disinfect all surfaces — chairs, set pieces, props, rails, technical hardware, etc. — before and after each in-person rehearsal.
- Require masks to be worn throughout in-person rehearsals.
- Conduct temperature checks of everyone present when entering the rehearsal space.
- Provide a hand washing station and have hand sanitizer readily available.
- Limited bathrooms to one person at a time in all rehearsal spaces.
- Only call who is needed for each rehearsal and uphold a closed rehearsal policy.
- Adhere to social distancing (6 feet between actors, technicians, and teachers) at all times. (Limit the number of people allowed at rehearsal based on the size of the room.)
- Hold large cast rehearsals in larger spaces.
- Avoid unnecessary touching, movement, or singing that might increase transmission of aerosol droplets.
- Encourage students to bring their own marked water bottles.
- Not allow sharing of food or beverages.
- Not allow sharing of makeup, costumes, or wigs.
- Launder all costumes and sanitize all wigs after each rehearsal.
- Sanitize dressing rooms, green rooms, and production areas before and after each use.
- Expect actors not to share any voice amplification equipment.
- Expect actors and technicians to avoid touching curtains, or other surfaces to keep contact low.
- Sanitize all technical hardware before and after each rehearsal.
- Meet technical needs (set and costume construction, lights, sound, etc.) through application of standard safe practice procedures and a staggered schedule that ensures social distancing in all work spaces.
- Conduct technical rehearsals with the minimum number of actors possible and adhere to social distancing for both actors and technicians throughout.

SAYT COVID Self-Assessment Form

Superior Arts Youth Theater requires staff, contractors, youth participants, volunteers, and visitors to attest to their wellness prior to entering the rehearsal, work, or performance space. Please complete a new form every day before entering the Marquette Hope Connection Center, scene shop, Forest Roberts Theatre, or other designated SAYT meeting space. This self-assessment will determine your eligibility to enter the building; it is not meant to provide clinical advice.

If at any time you begin to experience any of the symptoms described in this form, notify the stage manager, director, or Executive Director immediately, return home, and contact your primary care physician for medical guidance.

WHAT IS THE PURPOSE OF THIS FORM?

1. Enable members of the SAYT community to self-report to the production stage manager daily on whether they are experiencing symptoms of COVID-19 infection.
2. Generate clearances to enter the rehearsal room, work area, or performance space based on that self-reporting.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

A paper version of the SAYT Self-Assessment Form is available upon request to members of the SAYT community and visitors who are not able to access the digital form. Each day prior to entering the rehearsal room, work area, or performance space, you will complete the SAYT Self-Assessment Form, which calls for you to answer a short series of questions. If using the paper version, you will then present the form to the stage manager in order to gain entry to the building.

WHAT DOES SAYT DO WITH THE INFORMATION I DISCLOSE ON THE FORM?

SAYT may access, use, and disclose the information you disclose on your form as it determines necessary in order to protect the health and safety of the SAYT community during the COVID-19 public health emergency. Permitted SAYT uses of this information include, but are not limited to, disclosure of your identity and reported symptoms to the Marquette Health Department, SAYT staff, facilities personnel, and others who have a need to know of this information at SAYT rental facilities.

Except as described above or as required by law or legal process, SAYT will not sell or disclose to third parties any information it collects about you through the Self-Assessment Form.

LEGAL DISCLAIMERS

The SAYT Self-Assessment Form is not a diagnostic tool and is not intended to be a substitute for professional medical care, diagnosis, or treatment. Always seek the advice of your physician or other qualified health provider with any questions you may have regarding a medical condition or medical symptoms.

Information you provide on the SAYT Self-Assessment Form is not “protected health information” subject to Health Information Portability and Accountability Act (“HIPAA”) or its supporting regulations.

Snack Safety Information

At this time, due to the COVID-19 pandemic all snacks are prohibited at SAYT rehearsals.

Types of Rehearsals - Descriptions

Music Rehearsals: Usually the first week or two of rehearsals for our shows are dedicated to learning all the music and most of the time everyone will be seated. Don't worry if you don't know how to read music - these rehearsals are a great time to start learning and we'll make sure everyone ends up on the same page. Always bring your script to music rehearsals! These rehearsals are scheduled and led by the Music Director.

Blocking Rehearsals: During blocking rehearsals, the Director teaches everyone where and when to move in each scene. This is also the time that we work on character and how to interpret lines. It's a great idea to read through each scene before we work on it in rehearsal, take notes with a pencil in your script to remember where you stand and when to move, and review/practice everything when you get home. These rehearsals are scheduled and led by the Director.

Choreography Rehearsals: Usually taking place during the same period as the blocking rehearsals, choreography rehearsals are dedicated to learning all of the dancing in the show. Don't worry if you're new to dancing! The Choreographer will teach everything step by step and we usually make choreography videos to help you review at home. It is especially important to wear clothing and shoes that allow for movement in these rehearsals.

Virtual Rehearsals: Rehearsals held online, via a video platform or by phone!

Technical Rehearsals: Generally held in the performance space, Tech Rehearsals are the time we start to add in props and set pieces. These rehearsals are often longer and more strenuous we will stop these rehearsals by 10:30pm on school nights.

Dress Rehearsals: The last few rehearsals before the performances! This is the time we add in costumes, makeup, lights, and work with the orchestra. Dress Rehearsals are treated exactly like a performance - that means no stopping for mistakes and always staying in character onstage. These rehearsals are often longer and more strenuous we will stop these rehearsals by 10:30pm on school nights.

Attendance is mandatory at all Technical and Dress Rehearsals.

USR - Upstage Right

Wings - The sides of the stage where actors stand out of the audience's sight before making an entrance, and where props are kept, ready to be brought onto the stage.

Frequently Asked Questions

How do you cast the shows?

SAYT takes casting very seriously and our priority is to make the best decisions for the kids so they can succeed! It is all a matter of timing, training, part availability, and positive attitude. Every part is important and, regardless of the size of their role, each person is an essential member of the cast.

Why does SAYT have a registration fee?

Although some of SAYT's funding comes from grants and ticket sales, the registration fee helps defray production costs including renting the rehearsal and performance space, buying scripts, securing performance rights, hiring support staff, and all the physical needs of the show (costume pieces, makeup, props, and set materials).

Is financial aid available?

Yes, need-based financial aid is available by application. Applications are available by emailing saytheater.directors@gmail.com.

What is your policy on guardians staying during rehearsal time?

We have a closed rehearsal policy meaning that guardians and siblings are asked NOT to stay in the room while rehearsal is in session. We keep rehearsals closed because frequently there is not enough space to accommodate observers and the increased noise disrupts the rehearsal process.

To make an exception to this rule for special cases, please contact the Director at least one day prior to the rehearsal you would like to attend.

Does SAYT have an email and newsletter list? How can I be added?

Yes. To request to be added to the mailing lists send your name and address to susancandey.sayt@gmail.com or saytheater.directors@gmail.com.

Where can I purchase tickets for the performances?

Tickets for SAYT performances can be purchased in person at all NMU ticket outlets (Berry Events Center, Superior Dome, Forest Roberts Theatre, NMU Bookstore), by phone (906) 227-1032, or online at <https://nmu.universitytickets.com>

Can I buy tickets at the door on the day of the event?

Yes. If there are still tickets available to purchase on the day of the event, you may purchase them in person at the box office. Some shows sell very quickly and tickets are not always available on the day of the show.

How can I find out when tickets will go on sale?

Like our Facebook page to receive updates about ticket availability - www.facebook.com/saytheater/
Information about tickets will also be available on our website - <http://saytheater.org/>

Is photography and/or recording allowed during performances?

Due to a variety of reasons - including show contracts, copyright laws, and performer safety - absolutely no photography or recording devices of any kind are permitted during performances - this policy is strictly enforced.

How long are the performances?

Run time of performances differs depending on the production. Typically, performances of Broadway Junior productions are approximately one hour long. Performances of our all ages productions usually run 70-180 minutes.

How old do you need to be to attend SAYT performances?

All ages are welcome at our performances! We love having kids in the audience.

How do I make a donation?

The support of individuals and local businesses have a huge impact on our organization and the quality of our productions. Here are a few ways to donate to SAYT:

Through Amazon Smile: <https://smile.amazon.com/ch/47-4031410>
